We all form the panoply of life
like the countless stars that shape the galaxies . . .
-Janine Sarracino

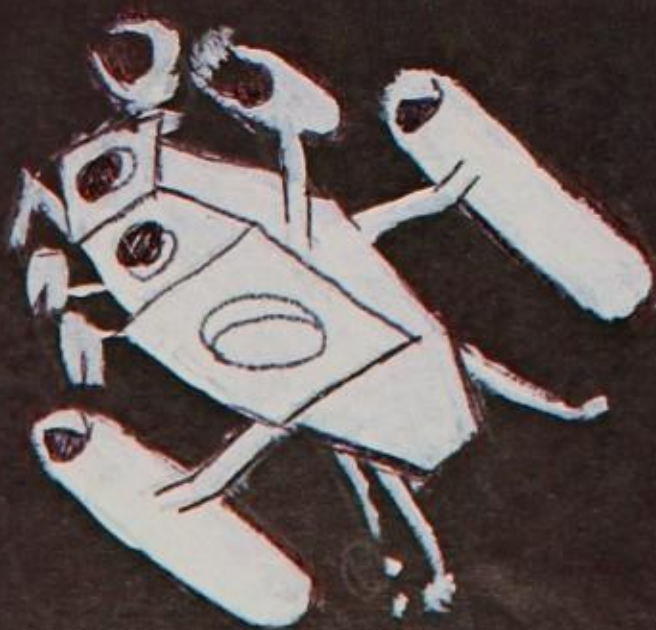

Beyond the glow of the stars
We contemplate our future
We must study to reach our goals
We must learn to give
We must experience pain as a coming rain
We must live for the future
We must . . .

-Brenda Valdez

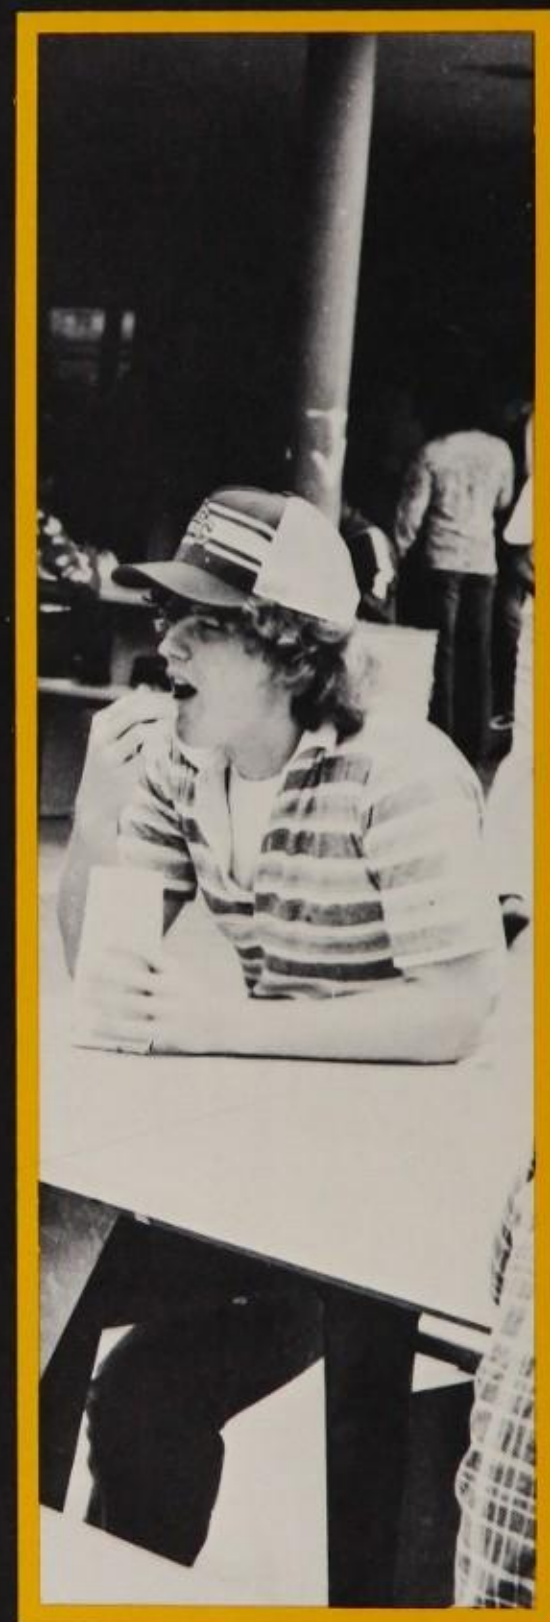

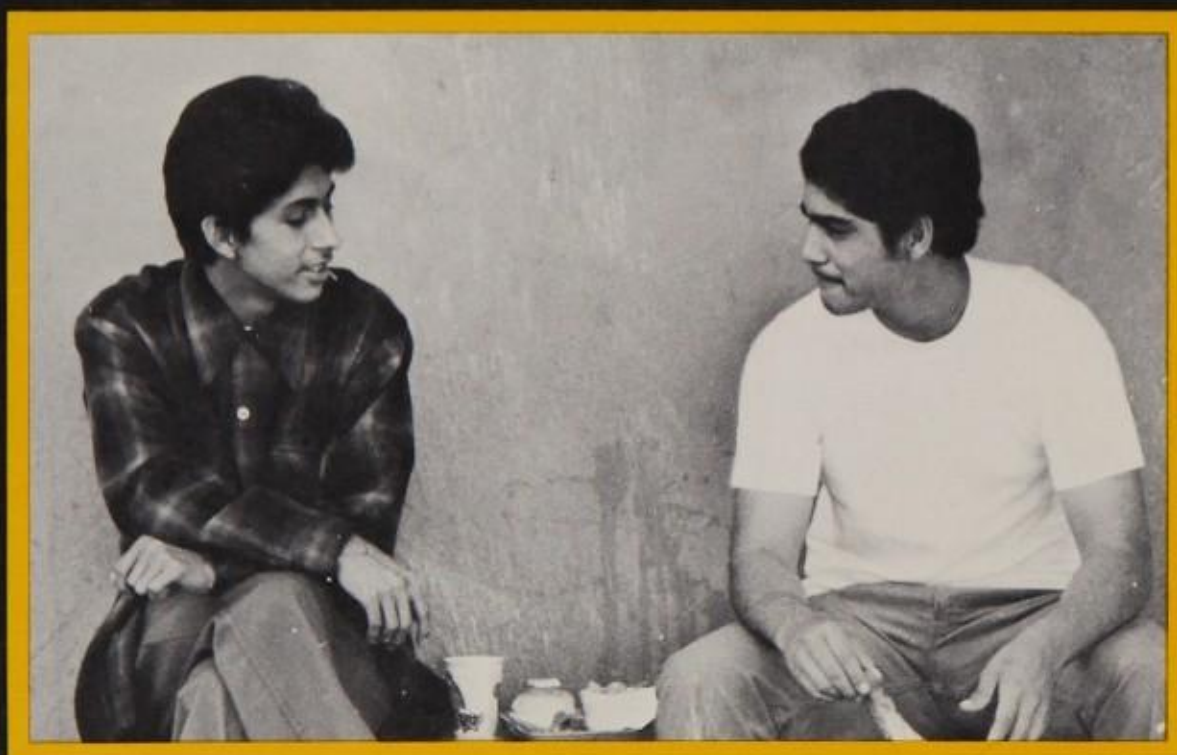

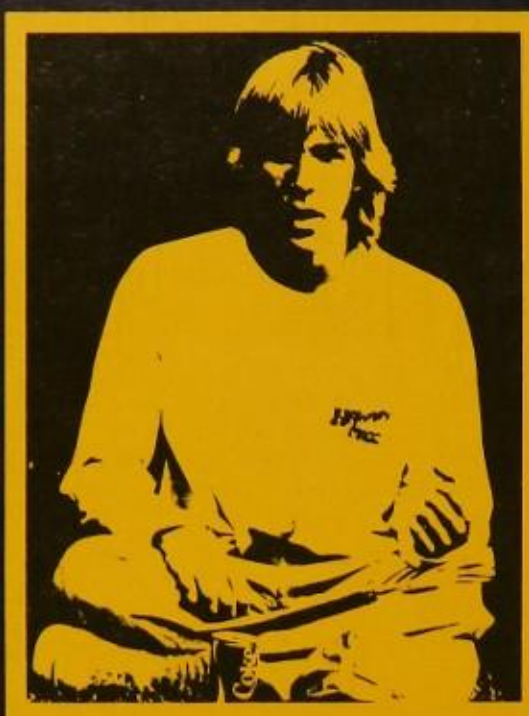

We are but mere specks
in a vast and mighty universe . . .
Janine Sarracino

Man, Dennis, you had a good year on the team. I thought it was a lot of fun. You played really well. I hope you mess of good act in this crazy mess of college. Keep the fam in on to see you around and always be the resource person you are. Love you all. Paul

Skies spattered with stars,
 Galaxies sprinkled too far.
 Limitless wonder before each dawn,
 Assure yourself that you are one,
 Changing moons and planetoids,
 Endless space of asteriods . . .
 -Paul Caldwell

Hidden beneath time scorched earth
 So many new born brought to birth;
 Castles and dragons and fairy tale lands,
 Are a child's only demand.
 A going away, a parting of ways;
 Tomorrow's adventures are just a step away.

-Paul Caldwell

We are the rising sun at dawn,
We are the shining light in darkness.
We are the future.

-Cynthia Sanchez

In memory of Steven Leroy Smith
January 15, 1960-May 28, 1976

It's very hard to realize
How much you miss a friend when he dies
Because when it happens
It's such a surprise.

Sitting on the beach with friends drinking
Telling jokes about life, laughing, thinking
We're all in the same boat now
And it's sinking.

Barefeet slapping against the wet sand
Smiling, Winking, Taking your hand
A wave crashes upon us
Is this how it was planned?

When you think about it, it seems like a crime
Life is so short, as thin as a dime
Once you really start living
You run out of time.

I can see the wind whisper through your hair
Telling dreams and secrets we used to share
As the seagull glides to light in the sky
Reach out and touch, remember we care.

Now you rest in peaceful sleep
To rise up from the ocean deep
We cherish those memories that we keep
How does it feel in paradise?
Like an endless summer, is it nice?
I only wish people could live on earth twice.

In memoriam, two words which Cannot even begin to express
The deep feeling of loss we feel
And the feeling of emptiness,

At the tragic passing of one we love,
Now gone from us to the creator above.
Cruel hearted fates which rule our lives,
Making widows of sweethearts before they are wives;

Destroyer of families, Merchant of Pain,
How long will it be before you strike again
Wrecking lives and dreams in your wake?
Yet our memories you shall never take

Yes, tragedy has struck close to our hearts
And the pain is almost unendurable
Yet we, the living, must go on
With a sorrow deep and incurable

And through it all our memories linger,
While time stands in moratorium;
For all that remains of what was Greg
Are two words, In Memoriam

COSMIC-RADIATIONS

Extra Celestial Events

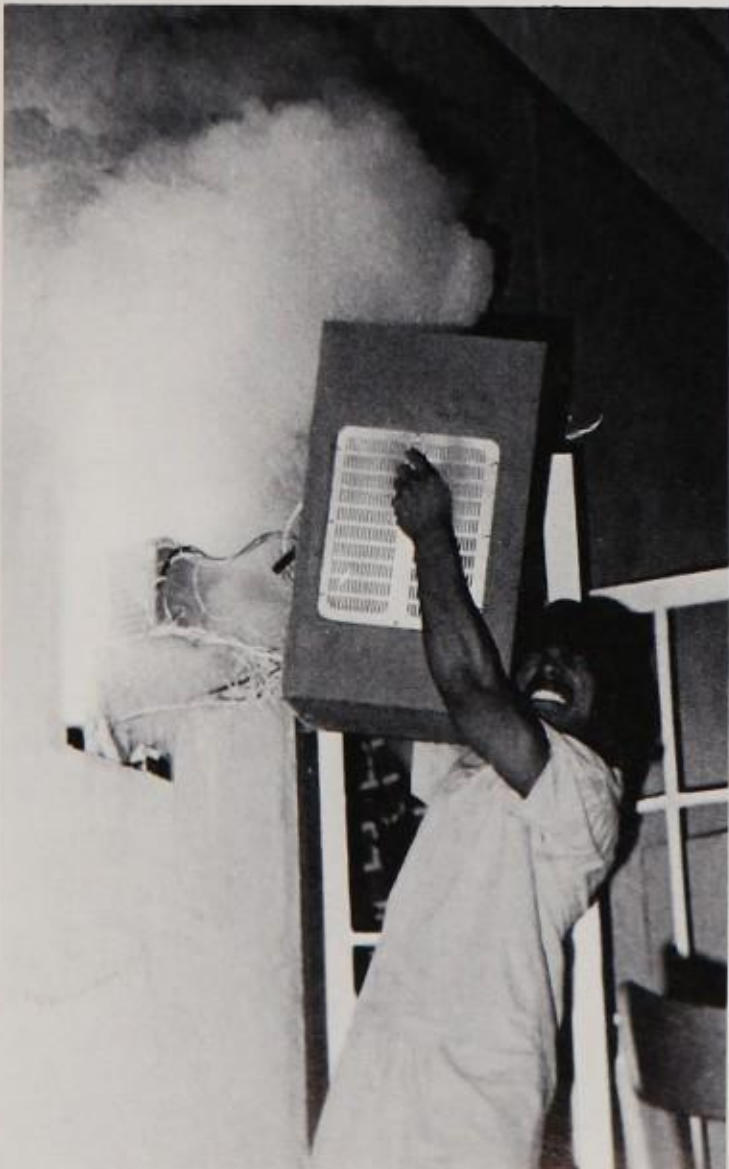

1. Arnie and Rocky at the Pie Eating Contest.
2. Narbonnes Spirited Cheerleaders.
3. 10th grade Homecoming Princess.
4. Activity Card Reward Assembly Featured a Hypnotist.
5. Voters Registration Day.
6. Drawing for a Free El Eco.

Narbonne's noontime activities are many and varied. From a pie eating contest to voter registration the student body is sure to participate. With noontime pep rallies performed by the cheerleaders and special assemblies in the auditorium our student government is kept busy planning activities ahead of time.

- 7. Dana Aratani gives a noon concert.
- 8. Student gathering for a pep rally.
- 9. Voting time (Kris Croft and Shari Watanabe).
- 10. Noon dance (Cathy Bradley).

One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest

"One Flew East, One Flew West, One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest!" This Academy Award winning picture became Narbonne's hit fall play. With Chris Bland and Don Carmona playing R.P. McMurphy and Kathy Smith and Gina Bornino playing Nurse Ratchet, the play was sure to be a success. The story was about a fun-loving, hard-living man who is committed to a mental institution in favor of a prison. An immediate struggle for power assumes between himself and The Big Nurse with a very dramatic conclusion! The story was presented by Narbonnes Drama Department under the direction of Ms. Lorrie Donato.

Ms. Donato, K. Elison, J. Buchannan, C. Rhode, G. Bornino, A. Deleon, T. Queener, D. Love, D. Daniels, R. Littleton, R. Maalona, L. Runer, B. Paulson, N. Queterez, J. Gelison, R. Giron, J. FIDDLER ON

Tevye, a Russian dairyman, tries to raise his five daughters according to the ways of the good book. Their lives are simple and they enjoy the daily rituals of life. At the close of the play they set out to find new lives in new lands, taking with them their few meager possessions and their abiding faith in God.

9. M.C.'s were Monica Garnica and David Rozas.

"Talent Unlimited" was the theme for Narbonne High's 1976 Fall Talent Show. Monica Garnica and David Rozas were the M.C.'s for this fabulous show of truly unlimited talent. The acts ranged from Tahitian Dances to a "50's" skit performed by the cheerleaders.

The World Is a Stage

This year's talent show was the best yet. There was a matinee held for those students that sold one or more boxes of candy during the candy drive. The M.C.'s were Frances Baker and Dana Sims. The show was truly a huge success.

1. Bert Lindsey and Rick Giron are foiled again.
2. Dennis, David, Jay, and Bert
3. John Jellison and Linda MacAleney in mime.
4. Rennette Mayo doing a Tahitian dance.

9. Terry Bredahl sings "Evergreen".

Seniors Vs.

All Stars

On November 24, 1976 the senior girls played the All-Stars in Narbonne's traditional Powder Puff game. Both teams played rough, but the victory went to the All Stars. Suzanne Zingali made the touchdown which ended the game 6-0.

1. The almighty seniors.
2. Charlotte Mallory, quarterback.
3. Senior cheerleaders-what a mount!
4. Loretta Smith carries the ball.
5. The All Stars.
6. All Star cheerleaders.
7. Suzanne Zingali throwing a pass.
8. Reggie Bland and Mark Lewis.

Christmas Basket Drive

Narbonne High's Key Club organized our annual Christmas Basket Drive. Jerry Ouellette was chairman. This year the school gave over $2,000.00 for this event, a very worthy cause. Outside donations amounted to $125.00. There were 66 families to provide for each ranging from 2 to 20 members. All were residents of the South Bay Area. The food and presents were delivered December 16th, 1976.

Christmas Program

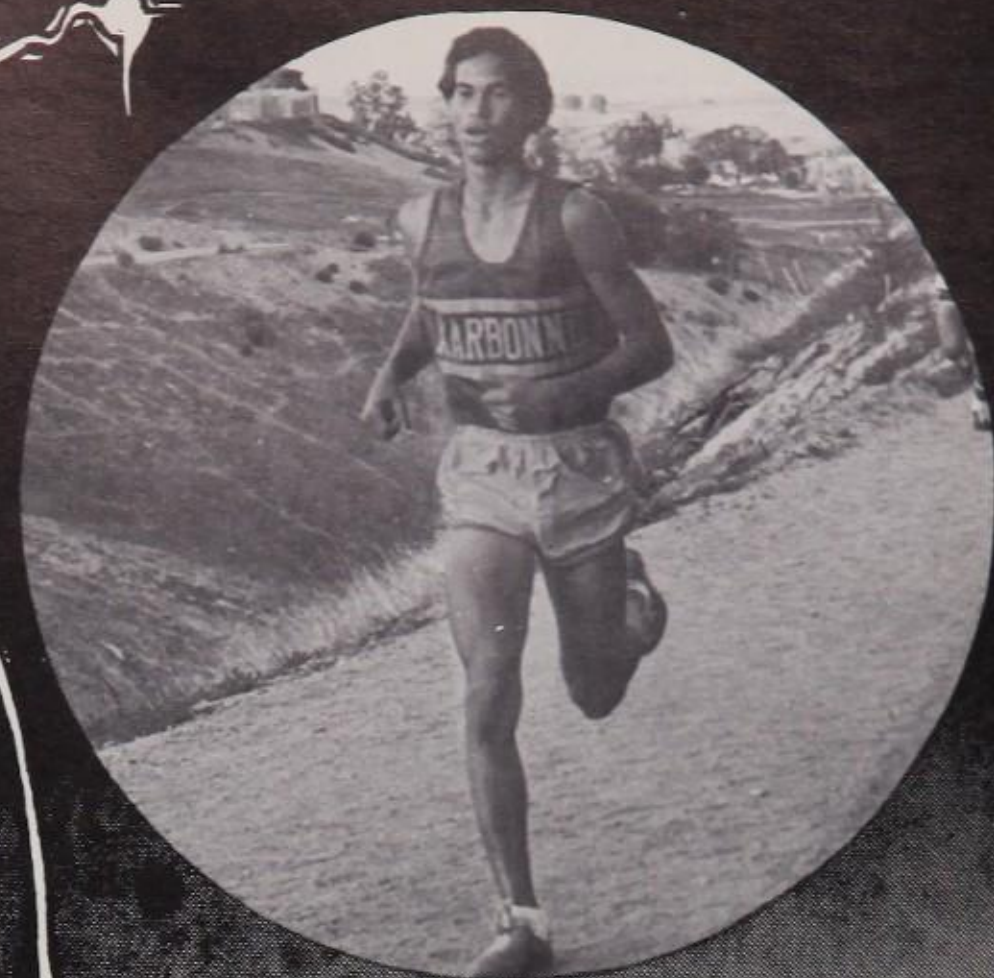

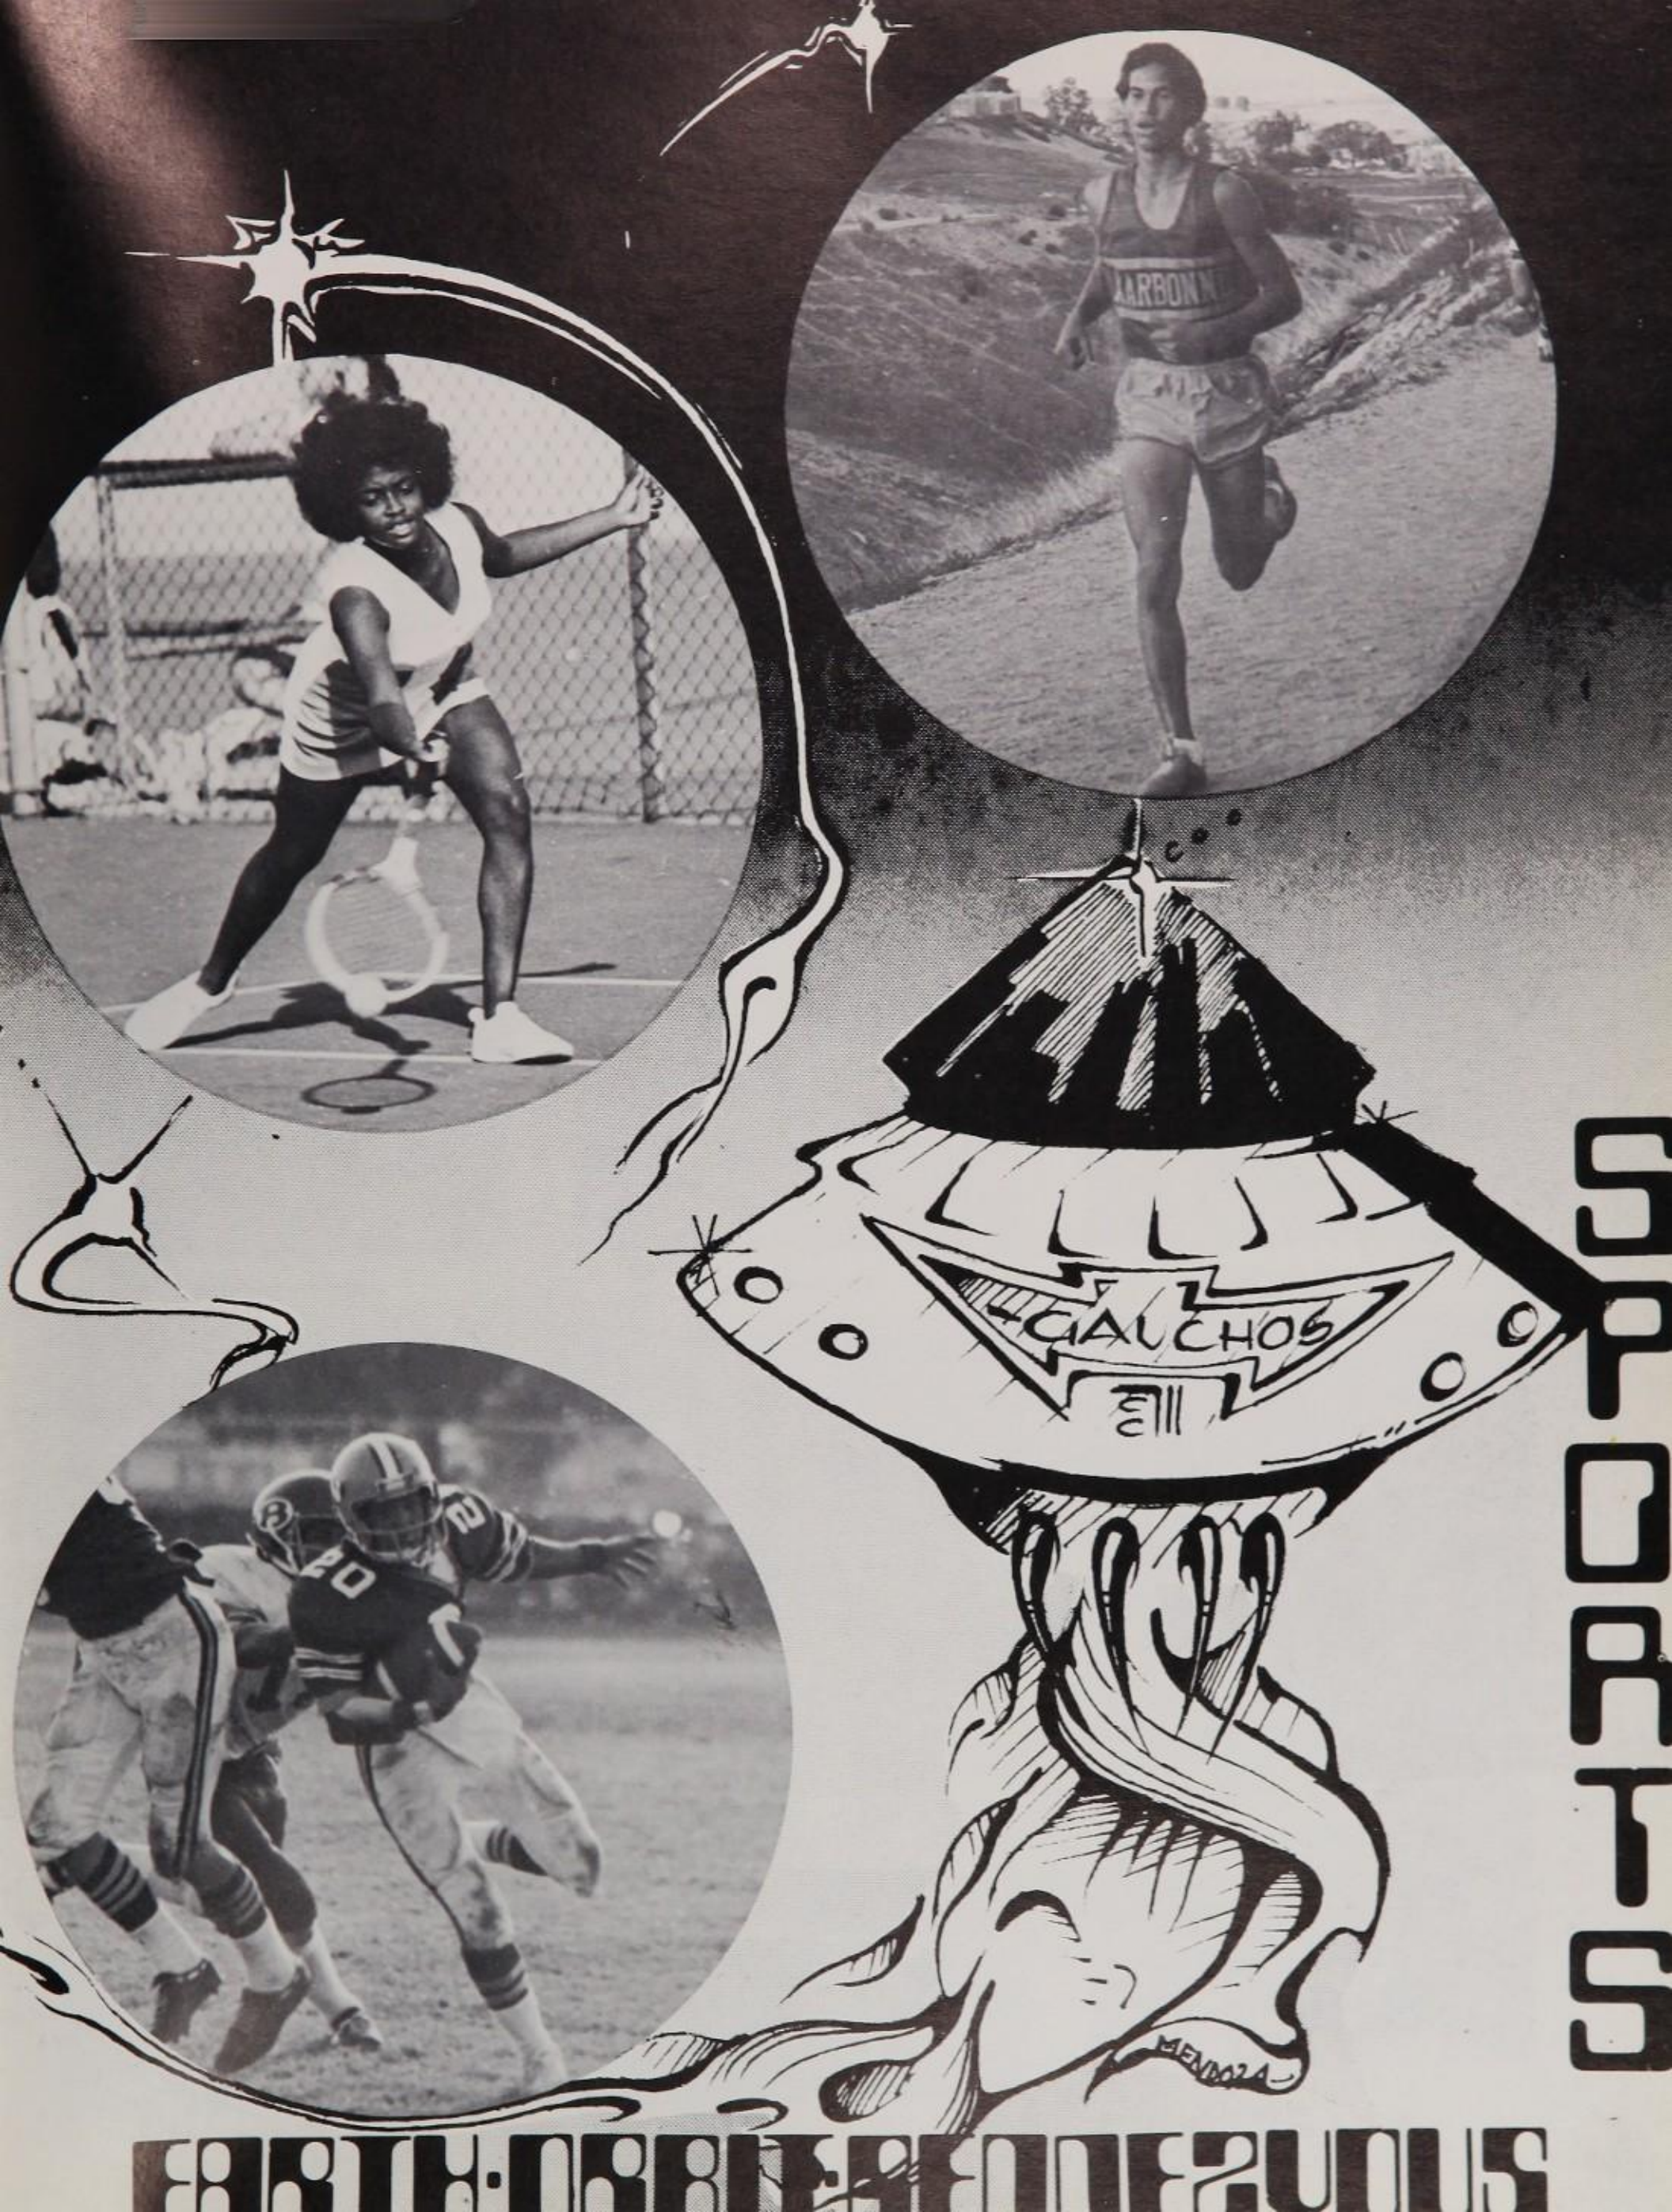

1. Narbonne's Dance Company.
2. David Spiekerman as Santa Claus.
3. Lori Howard and Sebastian Russell were the M.C.'s.
4. The Jazz band.
5. "The Fairy Godmother V.S. the Big City Kids," a skit put on by play productions.

Senior Tea

The Senior Parents' reception was presented to the graduating class of 1977 and their parents. There was entertainment including a slide show of seniors and their baby pictures. Following the entertainment, refreshments were served in the MPR.

Homecoming 76

During the half-time ceremonies the homecoming queen of 1976 was crowned. This year's queen, Rose Castro, was crowned by last year's queen, Ronnie Melendez. At this homecoming a new tradition was started; the crowning of a homecoming king. Rocky Maalona was crowned as Narbonne's first homecoming king.

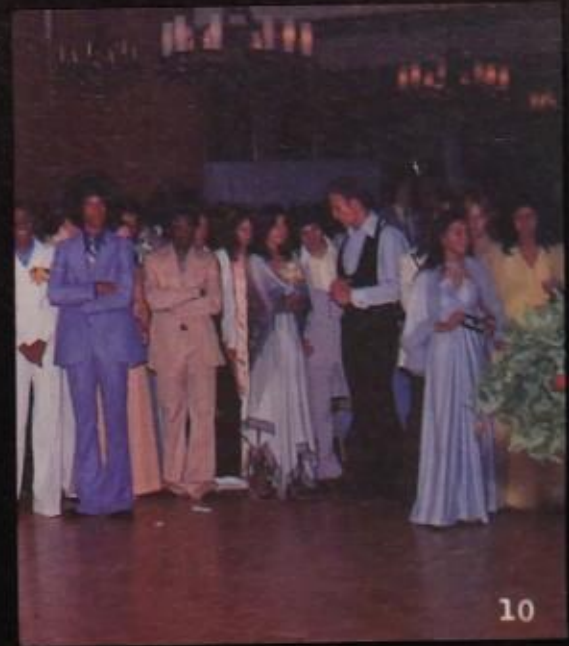

The sixth of November at 8:00 p.m., Narbonne's Homecoming dance had begun. The crowd rocked to the seasoned sounds of "Spice" at the Newporter Inn in Newport Beach.

3. Mc Waid's quick feet show his skillful passing.
4. Break away Humberto!
5. John Mortl beats out a Banning pilot.
6. Hill has an eye on the ball game.

Unfortunately, the season has not gone well for Narbonne so far. We've lost four, tied two, and won one, with three more games to go. The Gauchos usually get ahead the first half of the game and fall behind in the second.

Narbonne's soccer team had many new faces this season. The returning varsity players were J. Barba, N. Choi, R. Escobar, D. Fuentes, H. Martin, H. Montano, R. Medina, and J. Mortl. Most of the newcomers had AYSO or Pacific Coast League experience. As usual, that gave Narbonne better ball control than most of our opponents. The future looks very promising for next year with our young team.

Basketball

The Bee's, defending M.L. champs, had a good pre-season. However, when the league games started, they met bigger and quicker opponents. Even with this handicap, the Bee's made it very tough for the opposition. They are looking forward to a better season next year.

The Cee's had a very good season considering they had only one returning player. They were in contention for the M.L. championship after seven games into the season. They finished high in the standards.

The Land of Dreams

The mountains up high	To my new home
The valleys below	To talk of me
On a new journey	Won't bring me back
And directions I go	Nor I have left
I won't stop now	With the world off my back
Until I take my last step	To people out there
I've come to know many	Who do so wrong
From here to afar,	Do you know where you're going
But now I am Happy	When you go home
Here with the Lord	Leave me here
Blessed be I	To rest in peace
And blessed be thee	Nor I have gone
Don't dwell on me	To the land of Dreams . . .
Nor I am gone

Now you and Sharon are going to have to find a special guy for me!!!

DENNIS: YOU ARE A REALLY COOL DUDE AS WELL AS A GREAT TENNIS PLAYER. I'M GLAD I MET YOU THIS YEAR. HAVE A FANTASTIC SUMMER, AND GOOD LUCK FOR THE REST OF YOUR LIFE. SEE YA LATER!

Dennis,
I'll tell you it is your last year of high school. Good luck! Do you go to Hobbs College, or hope you have a lot of fun there. You know I'm going to miss you.
I'm glad I got you and Sharon together.
I hope it works out for along time.
You know the first time I saw you I really liked you. But I now Sharon liked you too, so I helped (as much as I could) her to get you.
Remember all the fun times that we have had. Like the beach at night, and this summer. (That night not have made sense)
You know Dennis, you are the type of guy who any woman would like to get involved of. Now on to the other people

Denise,
I've really enjoyed knowing you this past year in So. G. You're really a great guy and I wish you much success in the future because you deserve the best. Thanks for listening to my problems. Hope you didn't mind.
going to miss you. Best of Luck Always.
